GERMANY ON HEELS OF U.S. IN IRON AND STEEL TRADE

Figures Reveal Remarkable Recuperation

STINNES' THEORY

Empire Builder Sees The Way To Industrial Dominance

(Trans-Pacific—Public Ledger Exclusive To The China Press)

Washington, Feb. 13.—Government figures, just published, show that Germany is closely pressing the United States for supremacy as a steel exporting nation. Last year America exported 2,350,000 tons of steel, while Germany shipped 2,250,000 tons.

Germany has already outdistanced her European competitors, thus graphically showing that her industrial come-back is real. Germany is sending more iron and steel to America than to any other country, although these shipments are still less than half of the annual pre war average.

Hugo Stinnes is the power behind this activity in iron and steel, it being his theory that as soon as Germany gains supremacy in these staples she will be on the high road to general industrial dominance.

Department of Commerce figures reveal that German trade is booming all along the line, and that the trade balance is in her favor at present principally because of shipments to America.

Washington, Feb. 13.—Imports for January amounted to 216,000,000 dollars, including gold 27,000,000 and silver 6,500,000 dollars.

Exports for the same period amounted to 279,000,000 dollars, including gold 900,000 and silver 4,000,000 dollars.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tokio, Feb. 4.—The foreign trade of Japan during the month of January has resulted in an excess of imports amounting to Yen 89,000,000, according to the returns of the Department of Finance.

Exports during that period amounted to Yen 87,000,000 while the imports totalled Yen 176,000,000.

Compared with the figures of January of last year, there was an increase in both imports and exports, but this favorable prospect of a larger trade is offset by the much larger balance againts this country.

The following are the figures:

	Jan., 1922. Yen	Jan. 1921. Yen
Imports	176,262,000	104,340,000
Exports	87,160,000	75,061,000
	263,422,000	179,401,000

French Deputy Holds Government Must Save Banque

(China Press Service)

Paris, Feb. 13.—Dealing in the Senate Finance Committee with the bill for the reflotation of the Banque Industrielle de Chine, M. Poincare recalled the reasons leading him to support his predecessors in the measure.

In the Chamber of Deputies, M. Jeannery, the reporter, declared that the Government considered it France's right and duty, as much to herself as to her nationals and clients in the Far East.

To keep a word which was given in her name. It was necessary, he said, as far as possible to repay the deposits.

With the reservation that judicial action should be vigorously pursued against the Bank's former administrators, the committee showed a strong majority in favor of the adoption of the bill. In the course of the discussion it was established that the Bank's liabilities amounted to Frs. 900,000,000 instead of 300,000,000 as previously indicated.

Is It Or Is It Not?

Is this a genuine Leonardo da Vinci or is it a copy? The owner, Mrs. Andre Hahn, of Paris, asserts that it is the original "La Belle Ferroniere" and that the copy which hangs in the Louvre was done by a pupil of the great artist. Mrs. Hahn has brought suit for $500,000 against Sir Joseph Duveen, international art expert who, she says, spoiled the sale of the picture to the Kansas City Art Institute by declaring it a copy. The papers in the suit were served on Sir Joseph Duveen in his New York office.

DEMOCRATS TO LAUNCH WAR ON HARDING REGIME

Party Leaders Will Capitalise Business Depression

(Trans-Pacific News Service Exclusive To The China Press)

Washington, Feb. 13.—The Democrats are about to go on the war path for the forthcoming Congressional elections, and the leaders of the national organisation have already mapped out a program for attacking the opposition party in power.

The attack will be based generally upon the "inaction and aimlessness" of the Harding administration, and the current business depression will of course be attributed to Republican blunders and inefficiency. The Democrats also expect to capitalise the agricultural discontent.

There is talk of a third party but this is not taken seriously. It is denied that the group known as the agricultural bloc in the Senate intend to launch a new party, or support one.

Congressional leaders are busy meanwhile with new taxation schemes for raising money to pay the soldiers' bonus, which just now is about the livest issue in American domestic politics. For this it is agreed that G$350,000,000 will be needed the first year. Taxes on gasoline, theater tickets, sales and stock transfers are mentioned.

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon is opposed to a bonus and he is supported by an important group of independents in both houses of Congress. The nearness of the congressional elections, however, makes the majority fearful of opposing the scheme.

Sir Robert Horne Denies Charges Of Extravagance

(Reuter's Service)

London, Feb. 13.—The House of Commons today rejected by 241 votes to 92, Mr. Asquith's amendment to the address expressing regret that the extravagance of the Government imposed a pressing burden of taxation. He declared that the Geddes' report abundantly justified the charges contained in the amendment.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer, Sir Robert Horne, repudiated the charges of extravagance and said that expenditure had been reduced since the Armistice by £2,060,000,000. It was obvious that the Geddes' recommendations could not be accepted in their entirety. When the estimates were presented it would be seen that the drastic cuts had been made.

Leaders Want Assurance Of Non—Violence

(China Press Service)

London, Feb. 13.—Calcutta dispatch to London newspapers reports a rumor in circulation there to the effect that Ghandi, leader of the non-co-operationist forces, has been arrested by the British authorities. No confirmation of the report could be obtained in governmental circles here.

(Reuter's Service)

London, Feb. 13.—According to a telegram from Bardoli the decision to suspend civil disobedience was taken at a meeting between Mr. Gandhi and the National Congress Committee, which passed a resolution deploring the mob's inhuman conduct at Chaurichaura on February 4, and declaring that the country's atmosphere was not sufficiently nonviolent for mass civil disobedience.

It therefore would be suspended till the non-repetition of the atrocities at Gorakhpur, and the hooliganism in Bombay on November 17, and in Madras on January 13, could be assured.

A further resolution urged the Congress organisations to cease courting arrest and imprisonment and also to stop picketing, and advised the stoppage of processions and public meetings in defiance of their prohibition.

The resolution finally urged the enlistment of 10,000,000 supporters of the National Congress and a more conscientious observance of the Congress creed.

The resolutions are only effective after their confirmation by the All India Congress Committee.

HANGCHOW ROAD SURVEY SUBJECT OF DISCUSSION

Details Concerning Project Explained At Meeting Of Sub-Committee

A meeting of the sub-committee of the Good Roads Movement was held yesterday afternoon, Mr. Sidney Powell presided.

The committee consist of Mr. Powell as chairman with five Chinese engineers, Mr. Powell explained the arrangements that will have to be made to carry out the Shanghai-Hangchow survey and it is expected that the survey will take two or three months to complete. The meeting decided on the survey being undertaken.

The cost of making the road will not be known until the survey is completed. The survey will be undertaken right up to Hangchow Bay, 22 to 23 miles, due south from Shanghai. The purpose is to open up the country and provide means for getting the produce from the fields to the railway station.

The Governor of Chekiang has promised to build the road with the aid of his troops and, consequently, the cost to the Good Roads Movement will be small. The latter will therefore only have to build the bridges. It is not known how many bridges must be constructed.

Mr. Powell mapped out this road last year and since then was appointed chairman of the survey committee of the Good Roads Movement.

JAPANESE SILK TRADERS OPPOSE BOURSE ABOLITION

"Same As Suppressing Wall Street," Their Reply To Americans

(Trans-Pacific News Service Exclusive To The China Press)

Yokohama, Feb. 14.—Silk manufacturers and traders here take vigorous exception to the statement of James Goldsmith, a leading American silk manufacturer at the annual silk association dinner in New York, who stated at that time that only the abolition of the Yokohama bourse would do away with speculation in the raw silk market and thus stabilise the industry.

The Japanese, replying to this, say that it would be just as impossible to abolish the Yokohama bourse as it would be to abolish Wall street.

American experts pointed out at the association dinner that two changes in the bourse would alleviate conditions, first, the elimination of the small trader through the establishment of a minimum trading account, and second, the introduction of more grades of silk.

While most of the Americans oppose the closing of the bourse, they are in favor of the restrictions mentioned.

INVITATIONS FOR WASHINGTON BALL BEING ISSUED

Number Of Applications Is Now Rapidly Nearing Thousand Limit

While invitations now are being issued for the George Washington ball that is to take place at the Town Hall a week from tonight, the final details for the big affair, which is the outstanding American social event of the year, are to be worked out at a meeting of members of the various committees to be held at the home of Mr. E. S. Cunningham, American Consul-General 5:30 o'clock next Friday afternoon.

In the past several days numerous applications have been sent in and the total rapidly is approaching the limit of one thousand that has been fixed.

Daily rehearsals of the various numbers that will make up the historical dance pageant of the ball are being held and the work of carrying out the elaborate scheme of decorations is being carried through.

To correct a misapprehension that has arisen concerning invitations that are being sent out it should be explained that the two-section tickets enclosed with each invitation marked 'for carriage or automobile' are provided merely so that the holder on arriving at the ball can give his driver one of the tickets retaining the other for means of identification.

HARDING TO TURN DOWN BID TO GENOA CONFERENCE

Decision Made, But Not Yet Announced

REASONS GIVEN

U. S. Objects To Taking Part In Europe's Politics

(Trans-Pacific News Service Exclusive To The China Press)

Washington, Feb. 13.—The statement can be authoritatively made that the Washington cabinet has decided to decline the invitation to participate in the Genoa conference, although no formal announcement has been made to this effect.

It is believed that American objection to participation in the conference does not rest on aversion to discussing the economic reconstruction of Europe, but is entirely on political grounds.

Both the administration and the Senate are opposed to taking any part in European politics, with the additional reason that America cannot do anything for Europe until Europe puts her own house in order, meaning principally the reduction of military expenses. Besides it is felt that this is a rather bad time to hold a conference.

President Harding is withholding announcement of his decision for the further reason that he does not desire to embarrass the discussions that are now going on between France and England relative to the postponement of the conference. It is reported that the British are opposed to the French desire for a three months' postponement. This, however, may be changed when the American attitude is definitely known in London.

In the meantime consideration of the conference treaties is to begin in the Senate immediately and Senator Lodge is seeking to muster a quorum of the Foreign Relations committee for a meeting Saturday. The "lobby atmosphere" after the Presidential address encourages the administration leaders, who are now predicting that there will be only twelve votes against ratification, including the five Republican irreconciliables, Brandegee, Moses, Johnson, McCormick and Borah. The Democrats are not enthusiastic in their opposition and Senator Borah seems less determined than before.

London, Feb. 13.—According to a despatch from Washington the report of the American Delegation to the Washington Conference which President Harding submitted to the Senate, clearly and concisely shows the close inter-relation between the treaties made by the Conference and points out:

"The new relations declared in the Four Powers Treaty could not inspire confidence or be reasonably assured of continuance without a specific understanding in regard to the relations of the Powers towards China.

"The sum total of the action taken in the Conference in regard to China, together with the return of Shantung by a direct Sino-Japanese agreement, the withdrawal of the most unsatisfactory of the so-called Twenty One Demands, and the explicit declaration by Japan in regard to the closely connected territory of East Siberia justify the relation

Shoe Worker So Busy He Can't Be Annoyed With $10,000,000 Legacy

Patrick Canning, a shoe worker, of Haverhill, Mass., is the heir to a fortune of $10,000,000 left by the late Major Edward J. Curley, who died recently in Monte Carlo. "I'd rather," says Canning, "cobble shoes than lead a millionaire's life. No high life for me. I've lived natural so far, and I guess I'll finish the same way. Millions, or thousands, it's all the same to me. I may buy a flivver, and then again I may not. I have intended to paint my house here for some time, and I think that is the first use to which I will put the money. My wife is ill, and we may take a short vacation." He has three children—Bertha, aged eight; Gertrude, aged ten, and Irene, aged twenty-one. Irene is engaged at sorting leather soles at a shoe factory and is quite contented with her surroundings. The photograph shows Mr. Canning, with two of his daughters—Bertha and Gertrude—and their dog, "Jack."

Strikers At Hongkong Losing Ground; End Of Tie-Up Believed Near

Fund Of $1,000 Reported Forwarded To Canton As Relief For Idle Workers By Shanghai Laborers League—Passenger Boats Sail

Messages received yesterday from Hongkong carry further indication that the strike of seamen and cargo coolies which has tied up the Crown Colony port for more than a month is nearing an end. In the past week hundreds of strikebreakers, most of them from Shanghai, have arrived in Hongkong to fill the places of striking workers and these with the cargo coolies recruited by the Hongkong police have brought the situation to a pass that makes it probable that the controversy will be brought to a conclusion within a week.

After being held in port for nearly a month the steamer China of the China Mail was due to sail from Hongkong on Monday and the Monteagle of the Canadian Pacific Services yesterday. Both vessels are due here Friday.

It is now believed that any spread of the strike up the coast or to Shanghai now is altogether improbable, but it is known that many workers in Shanghai and in other ports are in sympathy with the Hongkong seamen and cargo coolies.

FUNDS RAISED HERE

The Shanghai Laborers League has sent a wire to Canton informing the Canton strikers that they have forwarded $1,000 to be used as a relief fund by the strikers, according to the Min Kuo Pao. Other Chinese newspapers in their strike news assert that Shanghai is assisting the Hongkong striker's cause and give other information concerning the progress of the strike.

A Hongkong telegram to the Shanghai Journal of Commerce says the mechanics on the Canton-Hankow and Canton-Kowloon railways have petitioned for an increase to be diverted to the striker's fund, and threatening to strike unless their demands are met.

COMPANIES WARNED

The Cantonese Provision Merchants Guild held a meeting yesterday in which they addressed a letter to all the shipping companies asking them to arrange a settlement with the strikers, and warning the companies that they intended asking for damages for the non-delivery of their perishable cargo, according to Sin Wan Pao. Sin Wan Pao also prints a Hongkong telegram to the effect that strikers held a meeting there yesterday in which they agreed to return to work if the companies met nine demands, the first of which was the restoration of the union which was dissolved by Hongkong authorities. The same paper says Canton police have been given orders to confiscate all fire-arms in the possession of strikers.

Should the strike come to an end this week, of which there is every indication at present, a considerable number of strikers will be thrown out of employment by reason of the employment of large numbers of Filipinos and Ningpo and Japanese seamen.

It was estimated yesterday that some 3,000 to 3,500 strikers will be unemployed while cargo coolies to the extent of some 3,000 would also have to turn to new fields for employment.

The shipping companies that recruited Shantung cargo coolies here have practically decided to keep these men on their staff, and the news from Hongkong that hawkers have been giving up their business and becoming cargo coolies on good terms would drive a large number of the old gentry out of work when the strike comes to an end.

NOT TO CHANGE SCALE

Shipping companies state that although the Ningpo men and the Filipinos have received higher wages than the old scale, it is certain that after the strike the old rate will be established.

At present the ocean liners in Hongkong find the question of crews not as pressing in importance as the discharging of cargo. The coolies whom the police have recruited are just sufficient to work boats that have foodstuffs on board. The coastal boats cannot be worked. It is expected that the thousand hands that will be despatched to Hongkong will help to ease the situation in this respect.

The Golden State is still in Manila but she will call at Hongkong only for a day and leave that port on February 18, and will leave here on February 22.

Four vessels, including the St. Albans, operated by Smith, Bell and Company of Manila, have been tied up by the strike and Filipino sailors are now being engaged to take the Chinese crew's places, according to advices from Manila. The St. Albans arrived in Manila on its last trip from Hongkong with a

10 DEAD IN NEW BELFAST OUTBREAK, ARMY HELD

Halt In Evacuation Of Troops Intensifies Issue

COLLINS LEAVES

Sinn Fein Leader Going To London For Explanation

(Reuter's Service)

London, Feb. 14.—A tense position has arisen by the suspension of the evacuation of British troops which was only communicated to Mr. Michael Collins late yesterday evening by the representatives in Dublin of the British Government. Mr. Collins has decided to come to London immediatey to ascertain the reason. The turbulent state of Belfast yesterday revealed a tragic list showing that 10 persons had been killed and 50 wounded.

London, Feb. 13.—Replying to Captain Charles Craig (Unionist) in the House of Commons today, Mr. Churchill said that the Irish Provisional Government had assured him that it was doing its utmost to secure the liberation of those persons who had been kidnapped. He believed that this was their sincere intention, but the extent of their powers was at present much more doubtful.

The Government had also appealed very strongly to Sir James Craig to take effective measures to prevent anything in the nature of retaliation or irregular action. Mr. Churchill said he did not doubt that this would be done.

The Provisional Government had expressed a desire for a meeting between the heads of the two governments, but it had hitherto been impossible to arrange such a meeting, which was most desirable in order that peace might be restored on the Ulster border.

Until the Southern Government had been equipped with proper constitutional powers and was properly in the saddle, it would not be expected to have the necessary control over its agents and forces.

The question of the use of troops in South Ireland, Mr. Churchill added, was very serious and might easily tend to make the situation much worse.

London, Feb. 13.—Four more persons were killed in the shootings in Belfast today.

(Special To The China Press)

Cork, February 13.—A truckload of police has been held up by an armed band which took away their weapons and escaped. There were no casualties.

Belfast, Feb. 13.—Sir James Craig, leader of the Ulster forces, today issued a statement in which he declared that the "government of Northern Ireland had been informed that Griffith had dispatched emissaries to County Monaghan to arrange for the release of the loyalists who had been kidnapped and were being detained there."

Belfast, Feb. 13.—Beginning tonight curfew restrictions will be reimposed from 9 p.m. nightly until five o'clock in the morning. Three more were killed this afternoon in clashes between the Ulsterites and Sinn Feiners, making a total of eight killed since Saturday.

London, Feb. 13.—Three bombs were thrown in Belfast today causing 18 casualties amongst the children. Two are dead and three are dying, while others have been removed to hospital.

London, Feb. 13.—The sailings of troops from Dublin were unexpectedly suspended today. It is believed that this is in connection with the events in North Ireland.

Military headquarters at Bantry last evening also cancelled the departure of troops.

CATHOLIC SCHOOL HERE GETS AWARD GIVEN IN PARIS

Lasayette Prize Is Given To Aurora University For Achievements In China

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Feb. 11.—The Paris Catholic University has awarded the Lasayette prize to Aurora University, Shanghai, for the most meritorious activity in behalf of French and Chinese educational co-operation.

The prize was established and endowed by the family of the French missionary Lasayette who died in China after a life devoted to charity among the natives.

Formal notification that the award told of in the foregoing dispatch had been made to the Shanghai University was given yesterday by M. Wilden, French Consul-General, to the Rev. Father Y. Henry, President of Aurora University.

Aurora University, which is located at No. 143 Avenue Dubail, is one of the leading educational institutions of its kind in China. The school provides courses in law, sciences and civil engineering and medicine.

RUSSIAN FLEET AGAIN FIGURES IN COURT ACTION

The question of local representation of the Russian Volunteer Fleet, which has been a matter of litigation and dispute for nearly two years, arose again yesterday in the Mixed Court when Messrs. Patstone and Patstone and Mr. L. W. Hartigan brought suit against the steamers Erivan and Astrakhan for $39,401.77 and Tls. 3,450.

Patstone and Patstone are claiming for monies alleged to have been advanced for wages to crew, medical attention, supplies etc., while they were acting as agents for the Fleet, their appointment being stated to have taken effect October 30, 1920. Mr. Hartigan, who represented both plaintiffs, is claiming for legal services as representative of the ships for six months.

The hearing came before Assessors Ivanoff and Tenney and Magistrate Kwan. Mr. Ting appeared to represent Mr. W. G. Goddard, who was agent before the question of administration came into dispute and still claims that post. Dr. Fischer appeared for Mr. E. J. Elieder, whom he contends is now the duly authorised R. V. F. agent here, having been named by the Chita government. Both Dr. Fischer and Mr. Ting urged their clients' claims before the court.

Mr. Ting contended that there were no grounds for the present action in that there could be maritime lien based upon such a claim as had been made. He further contended that the petitioner was not the agent for the company and therefore could not claim. The case was adjourned for ten days to allow Mr. Ting to file a petition setting forth his argument.

In addition to the claims mentioned Mr. Hartigan applied to the court for permission to sue the vessels for 50,000 gold roubles alleged to be due the crews as wages unpaid for fifteen months. The application was granted and the hearing will be held next week.

The court also ordered that the ships be moved from their present location, as requested by the Customs authorities, such movement in no way to affect the question of ownership.

The Premiers of the Little Entente will meet at Belgrade on February 22 in order to discuss the adoption of a common conduct at Genoa.

Tokio Deferred To U. S. On Hawaii, Minister Asserts

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tokio, Feb. 4.—"It was because America was indisposed to discuss the fortifications of Hawaii, that the Imperial Government refrained from referring to those islands when negotiating for the restriction of Pacific fortifications" said the Foreign Minister in reply to interpellations from Mr. Egi in the Upper House. He said that Japan consented to the exclusion of New Guinea as requested by Britain because that would prove no menace to Japan's defence, and also that while the Bonin islands pertain to the Japanese mainland Japan agreed to their inclusion in fortification restriction to enable America to limit the defense of Guam and the Philippines without anxiety.

The Minister assured Mr. Reijiro Wakatsuki, ex-Finance Minister, that the Japanese Government yielded to the American naval ratio allocation in the hope of an adjustment in the Pacific fortification restriction agreement, and that while it is true that the latter question was settled after the naval ratio issue, the Japanese Government had sufficient reason to believe that the solution of the Pacific fortification issue would be made in such a way as to warrant its concession regarding the ratio issue.

Tokio, Feb. 4.—An equal distribution of work among the different yards and an exchange of workmen as well as of materials were remedies suggested by representatives of shipping yards who met in conference yesterday, to put a stop to competition and to minimise the possibility of unemployment that may result from the present condition of trade and the decisions reached at Washington on naval limitations.

For further consideration of these suggestions another and more widely representative meeting of shipbuilders will be called on Monday, the 13th instant.

Imperial Naval Parley Called Off

BY NORMAN BAXTER
Special cable despatch to the China Press

London, Feb. 14.—The proposed Imperial conference to discuss the share that the dominions should bear in maintaining British naval strength has been called off for the time being. It was originally planned to have this conference immediately after the close of the parleys at Washington.

The plans of the British admiralty do not fit with the agreements reached at Washington with regard to submarines and auxiliary craft, and there are still some arrangements to be worked out with France, as it is not known yet how far France proposes to go in these matters. Still, there is no reason to believe that Great Britain will find it necessary to go beyond the figure for auxiliaries proposed in the five-five-three program worked out at Washington.

There is a strong feeling among prominent naval men that British trade routes should be safeguarded but it is felt that satisfactory adjustment will be reached.

Big Crowd Attends Woman's Club Dance

One of the most successful and largely attended affairs of its kind given here this season was the "cabaret" tea dance which took place at the Astor House Hotel yesterday under the auspices of the Social Department of the American Woman's Club.

Various American officials, including Consul-General E. S. Cunningham, attended and the big ball room was thronged throughout the tea-dance hours by a crowd of between 400 and 500. In addition to the money realised by the sale of tickets a considerable sum was raised by the sale of homemade cakes donated by the club members. The money raised is to go into the permanent equipment fund of the club.

Work Resumed On Small Scale In South Africa

(Reuter's Service)

Johannesburg, Feb. 13.—Work has re-started in the goldfield but only on a very small scale.

One thousand natives are working underground in Village Deep Mine and forty stamps are going in the Durban Deep Mine, but the position is regarded as promising. Forty strikers in the East Rand Mine and a few in the Village Deep, City Deep and Brown Mines have resumed work.

The police arrested pickets in the Village Deep Mine, but otherwise all is quiet.

Hitherto there has been no resumption in the Far East Rand. The crux of the position is the attitude of the engine drivers, who are meeting this afternoon. It is expected that a number will resume work tomorrow.

"White" Regime Gains Strength

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Vladivostok, Feb. 14.—Reliable information from Habarovsk indicates that the Vladivostok Government's position there is very strong, largely owing to the able administration of General Moltchanov, whose moderate methods have won the sympathy of all classes of the population.

The situation at the front is quiet and unchanged. The Whites have consolidated their position so strongly that half of the army is enabled to rest.

The Japanese continue cold and indifferent towards the Vladivostok Government rendering it no assistance in its present financial difficulties. The loan has not materialised and the rental of the fisheries has not been paid.

Paris, Feb. 10.—The communication of the French Government regarding the Conference at Genoa was given to the French press today. The document takes up the position which the French Government intends to adopt with regard to the Conference. Without bringing into dispute the principle of the convocation of the Conference, the French Government declares that the participation of France in the Genoa Conference depends upon the acceptance by all the participants of the principles contained in the agreement of January 6.

The Chamber of Deputies voted a motion, presented by M. Viviani, backing up the decision of the Government to get as a sine qua non to the attendance of France at the Genoa Conference the adhesion to the conditions and especially to the guarantees which must be accepted, by all the members participating in the conference.

With regard to the treaties concluded after the war it is demanded that there shall be no alteration, no relinquishment, no lessening of the rights to reparations obtained. France is ready to collaborate in the reconstruction of Europe, but she feels that her proper rights to reparations should not be lost because of this willingness.

HUNGARIANS HERE ASKED TO JOIN NATIONAL LEAGUE

An important move in the post-war, post-armistice and post-conference rehabilitation of Europe has been started by Hungary in its own effort toward unification and reconstruction within its borders. The ramifications of the effort, started in Hungary under the auspices of the Horthy government and known as "The Union of Hungarians Abroad," have extended over Europe and America and one important tendril has just reached the Far East, at Shanghai, in the person of Dr. Alexander Renner, commissioned by the government to organise Hungarians living in the Far East in the League. The purpose of the League is to encourage a national spirit and to aid needy countrymen in foreign countries.

Dr. Renner, who is living at the Kalee hotel, has just come from Buda-Pest where he gave particular aid to the Red Cross, at their hospital after the short battle resulting from the recent attempt of Carl to overthrow the Horthy party and regain his throne.

The Hungarian doctor who was a physician in a military hospital during the war, until he was captured by the Russians, came to Shanghai in 1920. He returned to Hungary for his family last June and while there he became interested in the League which has its headquarters in Buda-Pest. The members in that city number 50,000.

The League is assisted financially by the government and all members contribute a small sum which goes to the common fund for worthy purposes. Albert Berzvitzy, former Minister of Education, and president of the Academy of Science is the president. The manager of the League is Dr. S. Elemir, member of parliament.

Dr. Renner was accompanied back to Shanghai by Dr. F. Reiss who is interested in the work of organisation here with him. An office has been established at 11-B Nanking Road and Dr. Renner asks that all Hungarians who are living here or in the Far East please communicate with him, either by mail or telephone, Central 666.

Conditions in Hungary, according to Dr. Renner, while they are still bad, show a considerable improvement over those that existed in the country some months back. Wages are low but costs are falling. The average salary of a clerk is deplorably low—2,500 to 5,000 crowns, or $5 to $10 gold a month. Bread is 25 crowns a pound and rent is cheap—100 crowns a month for 2 rooms.

During the royalist uprising recently Dr. Renner said the Red Cross, which is doing relief work throughout Austria and Hungary, cared for practically all who were wounded in the short battle.

More Funds Needed To Carry On School For 'Beach' Kiddies

Philanthropically inclined Shanghai-landers are reminded of the reopening yesterday of the free school conducted by the Y.M.C.A. for the poor children of the "Beach" district, the area off Dixwell Road where congregate some hundreds of families living in the direct poverty.

A fund for the "Beach" kiddies was raised by residents of North Szechuen and Dixwell Roads and by readers of the Evening Star just before Christmas, most of the sum being used in providing the poor youngsters with Christmas packages. Of the amount there remained $200 which was turned over by Mr. J. C. Clark, associate general secretary of the Y.M.C.A. who is leaving shortly for home, to Mr. George A. Fitch, who is to carry on the work. But more funds can be used to good advantage and all who wish to contribute may send their checks to Mr. Fitch at 120 Szechuen Road.

OPPOSITION MADE AGAINST PLAN OF EXCHANGE HEADS

Shareholders Disapprove Action Of Directors In Buying Own Shares

Controversy over the reorganisation scheme of the Chinese Merchants' Stock Exchange on Hankow Road is expected at a forthcoming extraordinary general meeting of the shareholders on March 12, according to statements given out by individual shareholders. The board of directors proposes to issue new shares in place of the old ones by discounting the total investment of $3,000,000 by 33 1-3 percent. The plan is to issue two new shares for every three shares of similar denomination and leave the balance to be replaced by a debit bond redeemable when the exchange recovers the $1,000,000 lost last year through deals in its own shares.

The action of the seven directors in dealing in the shares of the exchange as disclosed by the annual report was the subject of much severe criticism at the last meeting of the shareholders. The directors, they charged, have not only violated the company ordinance of the Ministry of Agriculture and Commerce by dealing in the shares but have also shifted the financial liabilities of the transaction to the shareholders when they themselves should be held responsible for the losses. It is assumed, the shareholders said, that the directors were purchasing and selling the stock at their own risk and if any profits were made, they would have pocketed the money.

A number of shareholders are organising with a view to taking specific steps in this matter before the meeting convenes.

Plans Being Laid For Entertainment Of Marshal Joffre

Tentative plans for the reception and entertainment of Field Marshal Joffre when he arrives in Shanghai early next month are being made by the special committee of officials and members of the French community here.

The committee, headed by M. Dufaure de la Prade, met yesterday morning to discuss arrangements for the distinguished visitor's reception. It is expected that Marshal Joffre will arrive on the evening of March 9 and he will be officially received at the station. On the following day it is planned to hold a reception at the French Consulate-General and in the evening there will probably be a torch light procession. A reception to be joined in by citizens of all the Allied nations is to be held at the French Club on March 11. Whether there will be any function on the 12th has not yet been determined, owing to uncertainty as to the Marshal's length of stay here, but this and other details will be announced within a few days.

The committee which has the arrangements in charge consists of: M. M. Dufaure de la Prade, president; Ardain, Beudin, Chapeaux, Fiori, Grosbois, Legendre, Leonard, Schlisler, Traissac and Tulasnes.

PSYCHOLOGICAL FACTORS

In these days of psychological investigation human thought is turning in the direction of a more general application of mental forces. Heretofore we have been accustomed to think of ourselves as victims of circumstances or so called "BAD LUCK." It has not occured to us in the past that ourselves could be largely instrumental in eliminating undesirable circumstances from our lives by silently subjecting them to a scientific treatment through the power of thought and integration of mental forces. The great cause of suffering, poverty and sickness is ignorance of the Law of Mind. Whenever a person becomes enlightened through knowledge all kinds of inharmony in life, or suffering of whatever form begin to decrease until they entirely disappear. There is no more persistent nor distressing error of the human mind than that of financial depression. And there are almost as many phases of it as there are phases of physical disease. Many rich men are poor, suffering from lack of health and vitality. Through force of necessity they are driven to all kinds of mental anguish which tortures body and conditions of life. There are many things that money cannot buy, and thus it is in this extremity that man should awaken and apply his mind forces.

Instructions are given by correspondence describing the method by which all difficulties and disagreeable conditions can be overcome by application of mental forces. Please apply to Box 271, THE CHINA PRESS.

Your Health Comes First

Good Health is your most valuable asset—its preservation should, therefore, receive your most careful consideration. An important point which should always be borne in mind is the fact that a great many forms of ill-health can be traced, directly or indirectly, to disorders of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. It is wise, therefore, to keep these organs in healthy activity. When they show any signs of derangement let that reliable medicine, Beecham's Pills, be taken at once. Always deal with digestive ailments in time. They are far-reaching in their possibilities of mischief if neglected, as they too often are. And yet it is generally easy to keep fit and well and free from many debilitating ailments by the simple use of

Big Stadium Is Planned In Paris

Paris, by French Wireless Feb. 13.—The Liberte says that the plans of those architects who are taking part in the competition organised by the Olympic Games Committee of 1924 are on show at the Ecole des Beaux Arts.

Huge eliptical stadiums are to be built large enough to hold 80,000 spectators.

Big Seat Sale For Billiards Final

Due to the big demand for reserved seats at the final for the amateur billiard championship of Shanghai to be held at the Town Hall Saturday between Champion C. W. Porter and Mr. R. C. K. Johnson, the committee has arranged for two extra rows of seats at the sides, to be numbered and sold at the best reserved seat price $5.00.

Of these addition seats 17 already have been spoken for. Billiard enthusiasts wishing to see the match are advised to communicate immediately with Mr. Gibson or Mr. Phillips who are handling the sales.

A new table will be used in the championship final. A Burroughs and Watts table has been loaned and fixed by the agents, Messrs. Boyes, Bassett and Co.

ST. JOHNS DEFEAT C.T.U. AT BASKET AND VOLLEY BALL

St. John's university basketball and volleyball players won over the combined Chiaotung university teams Monday, mainly on their team work. The Chiaotung boys, who are drawn from the three sister colleges, Nanyang, Peking and Tungshan played strong individual games but showed a lack of combination, due to not having yet become acquainted with their team-mates' style.

The volleyball play went to three matches, St. John's winning the second and the third. Chiaotung won the first by a score of 21-15. St. John's picked up to the game in their second try and won out with a 21-14 score. The last game was even until the score reached 15-all, when St John's made several strong smashes and finished out ahead, 21-16.

Basketball did not furnish good sport. St. John's were in the game for the first time this semester, and the Chiaotung five with their individual play failed to take the lead they should have had. Both teams had many chances to shoot but few throws scored. When baskets began to tally they alternated, leaving the two teams even until about 10 minutes before time, when with a 1-point advantage the Chiaotung boys lost the game on two goals thrown by St. John's left guard.

CHESS CLUB MOVES

F. E. HODGES WINS 7TH BENEVOLENT SHIELD CONTEST

Mr. F. E. Hodges won the seventh competition for the Benevolent Shield, under the auspices of the Shanghai Rifle Association at the Rifle Range on Monday, with a total score of 136. Mr. A. M. Collaco was second with 135, and Mr. C. G. Hoh third with 128.

There were 15 entries of which 12 competed. The weather conditions were good and some remarkable good scores were registered at the rapid fire (100 yards, 15 shots in 45 seconds).

A. M. Collaco again made a fine score of 74 out of a possible 75 points (14 bulls and 1 inner). He made the same score in the fourth competition for this shield last November. D. Leighton was next with 13 bulls and 2 inners. K. D. Chen was top score at the 500 yards deliberate shoot with 68 points.

Hodges' total of points to date is only 60 points. K. D. Chen, D. Leighton and A. M. Collaco are the three highest up to date with 98, 94 and 90 points respectively. They have been leading for the last three months.

The Shield will be won outright, next month, by one of the above three named competitors, but many fancy Collaco.

Following is the result of the 7th competition:

Names	100 yds.	500 yds.	Total	Points
Hodges	70	66	136	20
Collaco	74	61	135	18

Waung	51	55	106	4
Ilbert	52	51	103	2
de Silva	48	48	96	0
Wilner	40	59	99	0

Following are the conditions for the next competition: 300 yards, "Large" 6 feet target, 30 seconds, 10 yards. Standing, taking cover behind the parapet. No bayonet; 400 yards, "Large" 6 feet target. 5 seconds each shot, 10 shots. Lying in the open.

Chiao-tung Give Eng'rs Good Game

The Marine Engineers football club defeated Chiao-tung university 4-3 at Nanyang Sunday in a well played game in which honors were fairly divided.

The teams played some time with no scoring, though the Engineers showed to stronger advantage. They scored the first goal nearly at the end of half time, and the University boys tied it up at 1-1 when time was called.

In the second half the Engineers pressed hard into Chiaotung territory, but were prevented from scoring by the good work of the backfield and goalie. After ten minutes the Chiaotung front line combined nicely to within 20 feet of the Engineers goal, when a beautiful shot by the inside right gave them a goal.

The Engineers then scored three goals in quick succession bringing the count to 4-2 in their favor. At about the end of the game however, while the Engineers were occupied in Chiaotung territory a Chiaotung back drove the ball to his own front line and the final goal was scored.

Chiaotung's inside right, Chen, a 17 year old student was about the best for the university. He scored two of their three goals.

Am'n School And Amtraco Reverse Positions Again

Hong Men Defeated 42-27 By Boy's Best Effort Of Season

The Shanghai American School five and the Amtraco team in the Foreign Basketball League changed positions again last night after their match at the "Y". The School, in the best game they have put up yet this season played all around and over the Hong men. The score was 42-27.

Squires was the big man for the school. At left forward he was better and beyond the best guarding that American Trading could hang on him. Nelson tried him first, with no success. Armstrong, the last of the disbanded Anderson Meyer team tried it, and finally, Capt. Nichols had to leave his post under his own basket to cover the fast schoolboy.

Nine baskets was Squires total of successful tries from the floor. He added another free throw, for a total of 19 of his team's points.

Parker and Wiens added many more points on good all round basketball. Smith was the best man for Amtraco. Nichols was noticeably off his game. The rest of the team were busy guarding the school.

TUAN IN TIENTSIN DENIES MOVE IS POLITICAL SIGN

General Tuan Chi-jui, former premier and head of the Anfu clique, left Peking for Tientsin Saturday incognito and is reported to be a guest at his residence, in the Japanese Settlement, of General Tuan Chi-kwei, the Anfu outlaw who was pardoned by Liang Shih-yi.

Chinese political circles attach a great deal of significance to the departure of Tuan from the capital, because since his fall in 1919 he has been confined to his own home and seldom has his name figured in any political movement that has been staged during the last two years in North China. His main occupation is said to have been an intensive study of Buddhism, while billiards, and chess formed his two principal amusements.

While there is much speculation about his sudden move, it is generally believed that he is soon to appear once more in the political arena in view of the critical situation being created between the Fengtien and Chihli factions as a result of the struggle for the premiership. That Tuan will take advantage of the situation and ally himself with certain cliques and once more establish his power in North China is the belief of many.

Tuan's connection with the South in the declining days of the Anfuites was well known. Because of the consistent hatred he has shown for the Chihlites, it is thought probable that he may strengthen his influence by coming to an understanding with Fengtien and enforcing to his Southern support.

However, in a statement given out by General Tuan, he asserts that the purpose of his coming to Tientsin was to prevent his name from being used for political purposes. He maintained that certain unscrupulous persons had been utilising his name to further their own political ambitions, while he himself is determined not to take on any more political entanglements.

Ex-Legion Chief Seeks Senate Seat

(China Press Service)

Grand Rapids, Mich., Feb. 13.—Major John G. Emery, former national commander of the American Legion, today announced that he will be a candidate for the republican nomination for United States senator. In his statement Major Emery severely criticised the action of the senate in re-seating Senator Truman H. Newberry.

it through to the end of the schedule, for with but two more games to play and those both against the strong Strokeside, they cannot expect for more than one more win, whereas Amtraco has five games yet to play with a fair chance of winning three of them.

Last night's summary follows:

Squires	LF	Smith
Parker	RF	Nichols
Wiens	C	Young
Chase	LG	Kline
Waters	RG	Nelson

Substitutions — Armstrong for Nelson. Goals from floor—Squires 9, Parker 4, Wiens 6, Chase 1, Smith 5, Nichols 4, Kline 1, Armstrong 3. Goals from fouls—Nichols 1, Wiens 1, Squires 1. Referee—Dr. Gray.

College To Finish Schedule This Week

Shanghai College, which is slated on the schedule to play its last game of the Foreign League season Feb. 23, will play off its remaining games within the week, if present plans carry out, and will be the first team in the league to finish the season's schedule.

The College has already arranged to play the "Y" tonight instead of on the 21st, and are trying to move their last game, with the Public School up from the 23rd to some date within the present week.

The reason for the moving forward of dates is that Capt Kelhofer of the college team sails for the States next week and he wishes to conclude the season before going.

ONE GAME ON TONIGHT

The Y. M. C. A.-Shanghai College game, scheduled on the list of basketball fixtures for Feb. 21, will be played this evening commencing at 5 o'clock at Shanghai College.

Tomorrow two games are listed at the "Y", the first at 8 p.m. between the Public School and American Trading, and the second, at 9:15 p.m. between the Bearcats and Fearon Daniels.

Spot bar silver was up ⅛d. and forward ¼d. in London yesterday. It being a holiday in New York, no advices have been received from there, but the London-New York cross rate, as cabled by London, is 433⅛.

The only changes in the official quotations here today were a rise in the Yen rate to 65⅝, and a drop in the Rupee rate to 254.

Our market today was steady and quiet throughout, with very little variation in rates. There were sellers of Sterling at 3-4⅛ for February, 3-4 for March and 3-3¾ for April, with buyers at ⅛d. above these rates. There were sellers of Gold Dollars at 72⅝ for February, 72⅛ for March and 72 for April, with buyers at ¼ point above these rates.

Neither buyers nor sellers, however, were particularly anxious to operate, and the market throughout the day was lifeless.

India bought a small amount of silver in London again yesterday, and the market there is reported as being steady.

Chicago Bank To Get Interest On Loan To Peking

(Chung Mei News Agency)
Peking, Feb. 11.—Mr. Chang Hu, according to semi-official advices from the Ministry of Finance, is preparing to pay $300,000 gold tomorrow, as interest on the Continental and Commercial Bank of Chicago loan, which, it is asserted, was extended on November 12 for three months, and which will be extended for another three months from tomorrow.

This report comes as a surprise to those who have been following Chinese finance, because it has not been known heretofore that the Continental and Commercial Bank of Chicago loan had been extended, Mr. John J. Abbott having declared that he was leaving China without having made any arrangement with regard to his loan.

It is known that the Pacific Development Co. loan was extended for three months, but that would not bring it due until March first, and the reports insist that the loan was extended on November 13.

The Cabinet was eager, according to report to have principle on this loan paid, at the same time as the interest, as Mr. Chang Hu declared that the Government was not in a position to do this at the present moment, and that the loan would be extended for three months more, after which time the matter of the general amalgamation of all foreign loans into one large loan would be gone into and provision for repayment made.

The Canton Government's Luxury Tax

BY ORRIN KEITH

THE debate over the "luxury tax" recently imposed upon wines and cigarettes by the Canton Government waxes hot. Perhaps its warmth is increased by the fact that the contestants cannot get at each other. The great Powers can sputter and their Consuls can send wrathy notes to the unrecognised "government" which has not only imposed but is actually collecting the execrated tax. And the officers of this government can reply with calm, judicially worded statements, knowing that if any real action is taken by the Powers it must needs be against the government in Peking whose sole support is the recognition of those same Powers—a denouement over which Canton would spill no idle tears whatever.

Canton begins by issuing a sentimental little document in which the new danger which threatens China is vividly portrayed. It is assumed that opium is a thing of the past but from "the successors of opium" the good people of China are to be protected. It is pointed out that the importation of cigarettes is increasing by leaps and bounds reaching a total of nearly eight billion in 1919, while beer and porter, wines and spirits to the value of nearly five million taels were imported. Such huge totals are seen to spell ruin to China and the new Government, assiduous in looking after the welfare of the people, proposes to protect them against this new menace.

The protection is to take the form of a twenty percent tax on all sales of wines and tobacco. Opposition to such a tax on the part of the Powers is anticipated and the Government hastens to make clear its position in the matter. First it is intimated that the Government would gladly suppress entirely the use of these dangerous products. Such suppression, however, is "impossible in view of the treaties with Powers." In order to avoid even the "criticism of being practically equivalent to a total prohibition" the new tax is placed as low as twenty percent although it is pointed out regretfully that other countries impose a similar tax as high as three or four hundred percent. Finally it is urged that the Government is taking care to make the duty payable by the actual consumers."

There is a certain naivete about these arguments at which it is not always easy to repress a smile. The necessity for immediate action to prevent "a grave state of things among the people" is not clear from an importation of cigarettes which averages twenty a year for each Chinese. It would seem that he might be allowed even twenty a month without creating too grave a state of things. Nor will an average of fifteen or twenty cents worth of wine result in immediate disruption of the country. And if they would—if all of these dangers were impending—a twenty percent tax would be about as effective as a spoon in holding back Niagara. In spite of the official statement, it is impossible to avoid the suspicion that the Government "needs the money."

Suppose that is the real reason for the tax. What then? The objections of the Consuls are not based upon the pros or cons of the moral and sumptuary arguments. They declare without equivocation that the imposition of such a tax is a violation of various and sundry treaties which China has made with the Powers. In fact so many different treaties are cited that there is almost an embarrassment of authorities. Space is lacking to list the various clauses cited. Suffice it to say that none of them expressly prohibits China from levying a tax upon foreign goods after they have arrived at their destination. It is arguable that this was the intention of two or three of the clauses in existing treaties but in every case it is only by implication and nowhere is it expressed in so many words except in the Mackay Treaty of 1902 which has never become operative.

Now there is a well-known principle of English law which holds invalid any agreement made under coercion. Of course it is heretical for anyone to argue that this principle should be applied to the treaties with China. One Consul boldly states in his criticism of the new tax that China is not independent and sovereign in certain respects, including this matter of taxation. This interesting interpretation of the effect of treaties upon sovereignty is not sufficiently widely accepted to be conclusive, however, even if it affected the point at issue.

The real point is that China's sovereignty—and included in this her right to levy taxes within her borders—has never been signed away by express terms even in the treaties which the Powers themselves drew up and then forced upon her. If the validity and enforceability of the contracts are conceded, they would still be most strictly interpreted in favor of China. Nothing not expressly granted would be taken. Implication would not be allowed to serve in place of express grant.

In such a case it is difficult to answer the contention of the Canton Government that, if the Powers have not drawn their treaties in such a way as to get all they want for themselves, it is no fault of China's. And if she can find some means of raising revenue which is not prohibited by these same treaties, surely she is not to be deprived of that also by mere implication. The bare fact that a given tax is detrimental to foreign business does not ipso facto bring it within the sphere of treaty prohibition.

Once Overs

EVER TAKE A GOOD LOOK AT YOURSELF?

Do you ever stand in front of the mirror and study yourself with a desire and an effort to look at your reflection as if it were that of some other person?

Try it sometime and be honest and unbiased as possible in passing judgment on the view the mirror reveals.

If you stood facing another person exactly your counterpart what conclusion would you reach concerning that person?

Would you be impressed favorably?

To what, about that person, would you object?

What changes would you suggest to improve the person you see, namely yourself reflected in the glass?

As you smile, speak, move in different directions, you have many expressions with the changing muscles which are not pleasing, not a sort which would leave a good impression among strangers.

You twist and contort your features into disagreeable combinations. You do—everyone does, more or less.

Would it not be worth your while to cure yourself of some of your displeasing facial contortions?

The Japanese Conspiracy In Siberia--III

BY FREDERICK McCORMICK

The search of Major Clarke on October 23 by the Merkuloff regime at Vladivostok, on order of Major-General Tachibana and the Japanese High Command, alarmed the Chinese Consul who was negotiating a convention with the Merkuloff regime providing that no Chinese premises be searched by its agents without previous consent of the Chinese Consul in the presence of a Chinese officer, which convention Merkuloff signed.

The Chinese population of Vladivostok and the domain of the Japanese-Merkuloff rule is very large, and eighty percent of it is coolie. Whether as an American citizen or as an official of the Inter-Allied Technical board of the powers, Major Clarke saw that he did not have the protection accorded to a Chinese coolie.

The Chinese Consul sent his secretary to see Major Clarke and to tell him that he had been unlawfully and unjustly treated, with all his entourage, two or three of which were Chinese. The Lettish Consul, M. Shuyin, also informed Major Clarke's secretary that the search was unlawful and that he took the same position as that taken by the Chinese Consul.

The "search" of Major Clarke let down the bars and the middle of December a raid was made on the business office of the British merchant Mr. Raitt, and consequently on his home itself as the two were one. The reason for the search was that in Mr. Raitt's godowns there were American Government War Bureau stores which were in the course of being liquidated by Mr. Bannon, the American Government agent at Vladivostok, through Mr. Raitt. These stores were a part of the American Government's war aid shipment to Russia in 1918 and there was nothing about them that has not been, and is not, perfectly understood by Japan and her Vladivostok regime of the Merkuloffs. And in his capacity of broker, Mr. Raitt always had acted with reference to these goods, strictly on permits previously given by the Merkuloff regime.

The "search" of Mr. Raitt's home was planned when he was absent, and when it occurred his family telephoned to the British Consul who in turn sent two representatives from the Consulate to protect the family, but allowed the "search" to go on, and all of the archives of the office to be removed. And according to Mr. Raitt, the protection given to him was less than that given to Major Clarke.

CHINESE BALKED THEM

A week later the Militia Section proposed to "search" two Chinese establishments. The Chinese Consul had a guard of marines brought up from the Chinese cruiser Yung Ching and informed Merkuloff that the search would not take place. So far as I have been able to see, the self-respect of the lowly Chinese coolie is the only rock to stand on within Japanese reach in Russian East Asia. The Chinese are the only non-Japanese there whose self-respect is physically discoverable and can be seen. This is true of the Maritime Province and Saghalin, and of Kamchatka Province, all of which I have visited and travelled in since May.

The effect on all the Americans I talked to of the American Consul's action in particulating in the sudden "search" of Major Clarke, was to destroy all trust in him, and to throw all Americans upon their own defense and resource. After receiving the report from the Militia Section by secret agent informing me of the action to be taken upon me, I drafted a letter to that official in which I pointed out that, as he acted on his counsel alone, I would hold him personally responsible as a citizen and not as an official, for whatever happened to me. But as a newspaper man I was afraid the "search" would not come off (which would deprive me of an exquisite touch to my story) because of my long journalistic standing in East Asia and the fact that Tachibana's High Command knew that I was under the scrutiny and toleration of the Ministry of War and General Staff in Tokio, and also of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. And I held the letter back. I also was afraid the "search" would come off, because I had the papers and documents which I am now making public if they were clever enough to see which shell they passed under, and get them.

What happened is in the paper to follow, describing my escape from Vladivostok and Maritime Province. In the meantime Merkuloff rendered the "Protocol" of the "search" of Major Clarke which the American Consul was insisting upon, which is as follows:

"Translation

THE PROTOCOL

By order of the Chief of the Militia Inspection Division given in compliance with the instruction of the President of the Provisional Pri-Amur Government on October 21, 1921, No. 283 and pursuant to regulations concerning governmental order, I, Lieutenant Goremykin, Senior Officer at the Information Section of the Militia Inspection Division of the Ministry of Home Affairs, together with Colonel Bogoslovsky, Chief of the Division, with Colonel Bulahoff, Chief of the Information Section and accompanied by Colonel Korotkoff, Assistant to the Chief of the Department of the Ussuri Railway Militia, by Mr. D. B. Macgowan, American Consul and by Captain Moreerty, of the United States Army, appeared on October 23, 1921, at the Railway station to search the car No. 255 which was occupied by Major Clarke, of the United States Service and Representative of the Inter Allied Technical Committee and which was attached to the passenger train No. 4. At 3 o'clock p.m. I entered the car together with the above mentioned persons. It appeared that besides Major Clarke there was present Georgy Vladimirovich Ivanoff, a Russian citizen, the interpreter of Major Clarke, Petr Pethovich Kreslin, a citizen of Latvia, his Secretary and servant. The car consisted of a dining room, of one compartment, of one bed room and of a kitchen. Upon the presentation to Major Clarke of the above mentioned instruction No. 283 and with the consent of the American Consul I began to

SHE KNEW

A good story is floating around England concerning the Bishop of London, who is, of course, a bachelor.

His views on the blessings of matrimony, and on the desirability of wives having babies, and lots of them, are well known.

Recently he held forth on his favorite topic at a Mothers' meeting in a poor district.

Two Irish women coming away from the hall were heard commenting upon his address.

"'Tis a fine sermon his Reverence would be after givin' us," said one.

"It is indeed," replied the other, "and I wish I knew as little about the matter as he does."

THE NEW LOVER

I have just finished reading one of Ethel Dell's novels. It accounts for the inclusion of the following effort culled from the London Mail:

Time was when lady-novelists delighted
To draw their hero as a young Greek god
Whose curly locks a score of hearts had blighted,
Whose flashing eyes made victims by the squad!
Now all is changed: we find no declaration
Is made by yuong Adonis on his knees;
Nor does the girl in wistful expectation
Expect Apollo—gies!

Our modern hero sings no love-sick paean
(In fact, at times, he's positively rude);
His nose is blunt, his shoulders Herculean;
His chin is granite, and his eyes protrude.
With whirlwind force he woos her like a blizzard,
And when her "No" falls like a withering blight,
With "one strong sob" that seems to shake his gizzard
He "strides into the night"!

Yet when at last we reach the final chapter,
And she (belatedly) declares she's his,
When in his arms he's carefully enwrapt her,
A subtle beauty then redeems his phiz,
His cruel mouth grows "wonderfully tender,"
His chin is not the same as it began,
And flapper readers, like his girl, surrender
To Ethel Dell's "Strong Man"!

Undoubtedly I have a sharp tongue in my head.

I take good care of that.

You see, for safety razors, a sharp tongue is a virtue—you need it for your morning shave. It is certainly the only kind of tongue whose sharpness is tolerated before breakfast.

I am "Valet" Auto Strop, the razor that sharpens itself. I need no "gadgets" or stropping machines—all I want is my strop. If you will let me slide up and down that strop for ten seconds every morning, I'll undertake to give you at least a month of perfect daily shaves with every "Valet" blade.

THE STANDARD SET No. 1 Consists of heavily silver-plated, self-stropping "Valet" Auto Strop Razor, 12 "Valet" blades and "Valet" strop in handsome case lined velvet and satin $11.00

The Japanese Conspiracy In Siberia

search the car; I examined all effects and papers which belonged to the persons, who were present in the car. With Mr. Kreslin I found a secret code (figures and syllables) which was handed over to the American Consul. During the general and personal search there was found nothing that conid have been compromising to Major Clarke and to Messrs. Kreslin and Ivanoff.

On October 23, 1921, at 8 o'clock a.m. previous to this search, a guard consisting of five persons were ordered to enter the car No. 255 at the hunting station Vozdvizhensky and to prevent the possible destruction or removal from the car of any articles at the intermediate stations.

No objections on the part of Major Clarke, and of Messrs. Ivanoff and Kreslin were made. Original signed by Lieutenant Goremykin, by F. M. Clarke, by P. Kreslin, and by G. Ivanoff.

Witnesses: S. Dmitrieff and another person whose signature is illegible.

D. B. Macgowan, Colonel Bogoslovsky, Colonel Bolahoff, Colonel Korotkoff and Captain Greieff.

True with the original.

(Signed) LITVIAK,
Secretary.

EP-d
A true copy of the translation
N. D."

In this document the American Consul signs, as a witness, the statement that the search of Major Clarke's car was a personal search. A copy of the document "necessary for the record of the Consulate" was insisted upon by the Consul in this letter to Spiridon Merkuloff, head of the Merkuloff regime; an apology to Major Clarke was requested under implications made by the Consul that Spiridon Merkuloff was deviating "from the accepted forms of international intercourse or submission to constraining influences;" and Mr. Merkuloff was reminded of his promise to furnish the Consul with a photographic copy of Tachibana's frame-up papers.

Merkuloff replied October 27, the day the Government in Tokio cabled Tachibana asking him for a report on the amount of the premium to be paid, and the trustworthiness of the people accomplishing and the guarantee of execution of the act of terror. October 28 Tachibana reported the premium to be fifteen thousand yen and the those concerned were known as trustworthy executors of his previous requests, guarantee of execution being based on same.

GETS APOLOGY

The next day Merkuloff's representative called and apologised to Major Clarke, and in a week in his office a scene occurred of which the following report, taken from the records of the Information Division and Secret Sub-Section of Colonel Bogoslovsky and Colonel Yurkoff, was made to me by one of their secret intelligence agents:

"In his room, Poltavskaya, 3, Colonel Yurkoff, Chief of the Secret Sub-Section, stated to his officers that he had seen the Chairman of the Government, Mr. Spiridon Merkuloff, and that the latter was very angry about the stupid inspection (gloople obisk) in Major Clarke's wagon, and recommended that the inspection should have been done thus: Twenty men should be taken, given rifles; the train stopped, the wagon surrounded, the occupants taken out (made away with) with all that is found there, and on the following day a written statement put out through the newspapers that the partisans had done this."

Closely following, an international secret agent, entirely unknown at the time to Major Clarke, came to see him and showed him without reservation, the fullest evidences of a plot to assassinate him . . . before those evidences were forwarded to Washington.

Major Clarke recognised that Japan had taken complete possession of affairs, that the American Consul was disinclined to take issue with Merkuloff, and that a vigorous plot was being worked out. The soundness of this judgment has been confirmed by events. I have at hand an official report from Vladivostok written on the date on which I escaped across the border of the Maritime Province into Manchuria recently, which says:

"I am firmly and definitely convinced of the fact that the Japanese are managing all these affairs, wishing to create a favorable situation so as to occupy the Chinese Eastern Railway as a whole or partly from Pogranitchnia to Harbin and hence southward. Japan has evidently decided to adopt the course of occupying the territory from Vladivostok to Harbarovsk and Harbin, not even stopping before the possibility of a rupture with America, if such might take place."

CLARKE ISOLATED

Free communications with Vladivostok were already annulled by surveillance and search. At present the situation is clearly shown by the conclusion to the above official courier letter which says: "There is no possibility of my talking by apparatus or sending telegrams, even ciphered ones, since my telegrams are all censored, and I am closely watched. The present letter I am sending with—to Pogranitchnia where he will turn it over to—for direct delivery to yourself. Your letter in reply to this I shall destroy immediately on receipt." Simultaneously with being 'searched' Major Clarke was isolated, and in order to re-open communications and to go on with his work in connection with the working of the terminal line of the Trans-Siberian Railway, he undertook to get into direct touch with John F. Stevens, by the only protected avenue open to him, the avenue of communications appealed to by him as follows:

"Vladivostok, Nov. 21, 1921.
Confidential.
Captain L. C. Richardson.
U. S. S. "Albany," etc.
My dear Sir:

"At the secret order of the Japanese High Command, Major General Tachibana, General Staff and Ministry of War, Tokio, acting on an elaborate program to discredit John F. Stevens and the Inter-Allied Technical Board, American Railway Mission, and their influences at the Washington Conference and elsewhere throughout and on secret authority and consent of the American Consul here I was arrested October 23 in my private car, kept there under twenty armed men with armed officers under guard from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.; and in the presence of the American Consul my person, car, and all belongings and the persons and belongings of my Lett, Chinese, and other employees searched and an elaborate protocol of the proceedings made, with apologies and also resulting defamation by all Japanese and pro-Japanese agencies.

"Owing to the humiliating, demoralising, and dangerous effects resulting from this secretly devised, suddenly executed and ostentatiously carried out exploit apparently under the auspices of our Government by the Department of State in its entity, the American Consulate here, I brought my car and those with me and placed them under your protection and a guard of Marines supplied by you to patrol constantly the premises.

"The situation is graver than at first believed possible and in this single instance in my judgment, before it is prudent for my establishment to move from here in the performance of our duties it is paramount to be assured that the Secretary and Department of State do not intend that while in the service of the Inter-Allied Technical Board and the governments concerned including our own, any of the Department's agents or those of any other branch of our Government shall devise directly or indirectly with the Government of Japan to any other foreign power or its tools, a secret and sudden arrest and search of me, my domicile and belongings, or the persons and belongings or my helpers in my domicile.

"To this end and owing to demoralisation of our communications and my isolation by recent events, I respectfully request your aid and the aid of the Asiatic Fleet in transmitting this communication to Mr. John F. Stevens, Chairman Inter-Allied Technical Board, care the Secretary of State, Washington.

"I have the honor to be,
"Very respectfully,
"Major F. M. Clarke,
Representative Technical Board.

Major Clarke took this letter in person to the U.S.S. Albany to hand to Captain Richardson. The latter took it and said he would reply to it. Two days after he paid a visit to Major Clarke and told him he had not transmitted the letter and would not do so. Taking a match, he lighted it, told Major Clarke that "nobody was going to 'get' the American Consul," and burned the letter in Clarke's face.

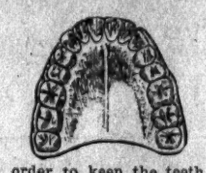
KINGMAN & BROS.
How to Preserve the Teeth



In order to keep the teeth in a good condition scientific precaution must be taken. Through negligence, decay and numerous other affections such as tooth-ache, dental periostitis, esteo-periostitis, necrosis of the jaw, etc., may arise. During the process of ingestion, there are settled on the teeth some deposits of mineral and organic matters, called tartar, which possesses a morbid power of pressing the gum. As an inevitable result of the presence of this tartar, the teeth will become elongated and movable and will, by degrees, absorb away the enamel, leading ultimately to the decay and degeneration of the teeth. The tartar is so hard and resistant to the process of brushing that it cannot be scraped off except with dental instruments specially devised for that purpose.

Dr. KINGMAN offers to the public his service for preserving their teeth at an annual subscription Fee of $10.00 per head to be paid in advance.

The work to be done by Dr. KINGMAN to the subscribers consist in:—

(1) Cleaning of the teeth quarterly.
(2) Filling with gold platinum alloy only, when the teeth present holes.
(3) Inspecting the teeth at any time at the desire of the subscribers.

B. A. T. Brings Claim Against Steamship Co. As Result Of Collision

As a result of a collision between the steamer Hoihow and a cargo boat which occurred in the Whangpoo on October 14 the hearing was begun in the British Supreme Court yesterday of a claim brought by the British American Tobacco Company against the Hoihow's owners, the China Navigation Steamship Co., Ltd.

The hearing was before Judge Skinner Turner and Lieutenant-Commander C. A. Brown, R. N., navigating officer of the Cairo, who sat as Nautical Assessor. Mr. Reader Harris appeared for the plaintiffs and Mr. R. N. MacLeod and Mr. C. M. Reece for the defendants.

Mr. Reader Harris stated that the action was for damages caused by a collision which occurred at 3 p.m. October 14 in the Whangpoo near the Police Hulk. The Hoihow was inward bound and the cargo boat, loaded mainly with cigarettes, was proceeding in a northeast direction from the Customs examination shed to the steamer Hwanglee. The weather, he said, was fine and there was an ebb tide of moderate strength. When the cargo boat had proceeded some 500 or 600 feet she sighted the steamer coming on about two points on her port bow and about three and a half cables away. The steamer started to go across as if into the other channel and without sounding any signal crashed her bow, practically at right angles, into the barge, which was virtually cut in two. The steamer, he said, did not blow her whistle to show that she was going to port.

Counsel quoted legal authorities tending to show that as a rule vessels should keep clear of cargo boats, with certain exceptions. He submitted that there had been negligence, no signal having sounded and no proper lookout being kept. In reply to the court he said as regarded the amount of damage that might be submitted for reference.

Mr. Herbert Thomas, manager of the Traffic Department of the B.A.T. was the first witness, giving testimony regarding the cargo on the barge and its destination. The next witness was the Chinese owner of the cargo boat, who described the collision along the lines previously sketched by Mr. Harris.

Flat contradiction to part of the plaintiffs' allegations was given by Captain W. J. Andrews. There were three cargo boats coming down the river, he said, and when he blew his whistle two immediately turned downstream. He sounded the signal several times but the other boat carried on and he gave the order to stop, but the ship could not stop immediately. The lighter then seemed to lose her head altogether. She turned upstream and the ebb tide carried her directly into the path of the Hoihow. It seemed to him that the cargo on the barge was piled too high for the men to see what they were about.

Mr. MacLeod, taking up the case for the defendants, submitted that the Captain of the Hoihow had done everything possible, that the crew of the lighter did not seem to be on the look out and that the steamer could not avoid the collision.

The hearing was adjourned.
